

Thanks for the great event your company ran for us. You have been the only promoter who has been able to conduct a positive event for us. No one thought we were going out of business at all. We were really concerned going into this event, but you have done everything the right way. You have been able to provide inventory and invaluable sales training to our staff. Thanks for giving us the sale of the century.

Rodger Richards

Granite furniture